

Those who move and find success

Armelle Attingre's journey is one of resilience, courage, and belonging across borders.

Born in Côte d'Ivoire and raised in France, Armelle Attingre found her voice through handball. What began as a childhood dream grew into an international career, taking her from France to Türkiye, Hungary, and eventually to Montenegro.

Today, as a goalkeeper for ŽRK Budućnost Podgorica and a member of the Montenegrin national team, Armelle has found more than professional success – she has found a place to call home.
